I receive a Centrelink Benefit and would like to arrange a Centrepay deduction. I have signed the authorisation on the back of this form and understand the first payment will be taken from my next available centrelink payment.

Centrepay information

If you are receiving a Centrelink Benefit Revenue NSW can arrange to have your fortnightly instalment payments deducted from your eligible Centrelink Benefit using the Centrepay program:

- Most Centrelink payments are eligible for the Centrepay Program. Centrepay deductions are voluntary.
- Deductions will automatically cease when your instalment arrangement is paid in full.
- You must contact Revenue NSW to add new overdue fines to your payment arrangement. We will then reassess your repayment amounts and advise Centrelink of any changes.
- You can make changes to your Centrepay deductions by contacting Revenue NSW or Centrelink.
- If you wish to set up Centrepay deductions for your fortnightly instalment payments, read the deduction authorisation and sign the declaration.

Deduction authorisation

For the purpose of this payment plan, I authorise Revenue NSW to advise Centrelink:

- To make the agreed deductions each fortnight from my current Centrelink payment(s)
- To decrease or suspend the nominated deduction when required to ensure my obligations under my payment plan are met.
- Of my correct account or billing number if required.

I give permission for Centrelink to pay the amounts directly to Revenue NSW.

I understand that:

- It is my choice to have amounts deducted from my Centrelink payment
- I can change or cancel the deduction at any time
- If I transfer to another eligible Centrelink payment, I need to advise Centrelink that I wish for my repayments to Revenue NSW to continue
- Centrelink will notify me in writing of any changes to my deductions
- If the deductions from my Centrelink benefits are cancelled for any reason, I am still required to make the agreed repayments on my payment plan with Revenue NSW.
- Centrepay Deductions may continue for any additional overdue fines, but the deduction amount will not change. My dispute options will still be available to me.
